Summary of reasons for decision:

This moving image file is deemed objectionable under s3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act) because it promotes and supports the the sexual exploitation of children. It depicts the sexual abuse of a young girl by a man. The nature of the abuse is such that this file also promotes and supports sexual violence. The only purpose of the file is sexual arousal and gratification of those with a sexual interest in young girls. Material such as this presents children as sexually available and appropriate subjects for adult sexual attention and encourages and legitimises such an interest. The digital format allows the file to be easily disseminated among likeminded people. This classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as provided by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, the classification is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) of the FVPC Act are deemed to be objectionable. This reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect children from exploitation and harm.
